

It is your job to protect America from the tyrannies and biases of monopolies and allow the public to be educated in truth, not political bias and destructive agendas. Make room for smaller independents by allowing equitable competition and diversity in the communications industry. Do not allow the FCC to deregulate America's airwaves. America is NOT up for sale!